CORNELL
25TH REUNION
SUPPLEMENT

D·E·A·R C·L·A·S·S·M·A·T·E·S

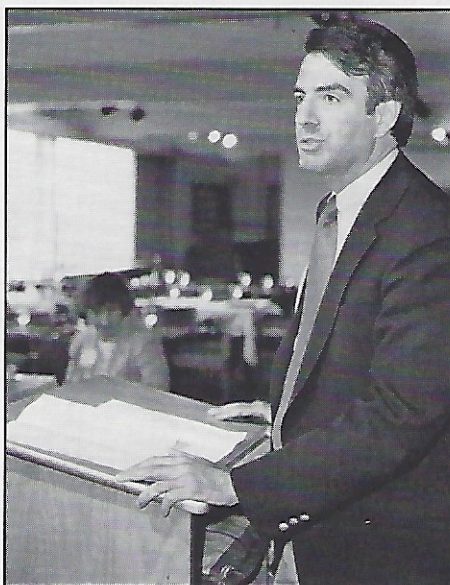

The Class of 1962 Twenty-fifth Reunion was a once in a lifetime experience. For the more than 700 classmates, spouses, guests, and family members who came together last June from all over the U.S. and the world, it was a wonderful but all too brief four-day celebration of life. For some, it was their fifth time back for a reunion; for others, their first time back to Cornell in twenty-five years. Those who came with great expectations were not disappointed. Others who had some trepidation about attending a college reunion had their fears quickly set aside with the first friendly hello. It was a time to catch up with old friends, make new ones, learn more about what is happening on campus today, and renew the ties the bind us all to Cornell.

The Class of 1962 celebrated this occasion in another very special way. As part of the Twenty-Fifth Reunion Cornell Fund Campaign, the Class raised over $5.5 million from 738 classmates. This represents a new Cornell and national record for the most money ever raised by a single class. Close to 100 members of the Class contributed their time and energy to the fundraising effort. I thank these workers and contributors, large and small, for this accomplishment.

The Twenty-fifth Reunion Yearbook published last year was a smash success, but many who missed the deadline for submission of autobiographical data were disappointed at not being included. As a remembrance of our Twenty-fifth Reunion, we have prepared this Yearbook supplement, which captures highlights from the Reunion with photos and includes profiles of additional classmates.

I hope you enjoy it. ■

We arrived on campus:
To rekindle old friendships,
Make new ones,
Reacquaint ourselves with the campus,
To link the past with the present.

Some things never change:
Spectacular vistas,
Construction,
Dogs,
Chime concerts,
Steepness of the libe slope.

While others have:
Coeds living in University Halls,
Many new buildings,
Co-op now underground,
Young tress replacing lost elms.

Days were filled with:
Cries of recognition,
Hugs,
Talking, singing, eating,
Sharing new common interests,
The pleasures of meeting spouses and children

We gathered:
To enjoy the magnificent view
from the Johnson Museum,
At Stewart Park to remember times by "Cayuga's waters,"
To stimulate our minds at faculty seminars and lectures,
At beer tents to dance and socialize,
In the class headquarters until the wee hours.

Our thanks go to:
Judy, Peter, and Liz for a meaningful yearbook, Evelyn and Caroline for an enjoyable women's breakfast,
Margie for an inspiring lecture,
Frank and George for a record setting reunion campaign, Neil for his leadership over the years.

At the end of the weekend:
We bid our farewells,
Agreed to keep in touch,
Headed our separate ways,
Back to reality.

For weeks we remembered:
Four days when,
Our "other" lives were subordinate to our bond as Cornellians,
A bond extended and strengthened,
We'll do it again at the 30th,
June 1992! ■
